President's Message:

The Board would like to wish all Lee's Crossing residents a Happy New Year!

2015 was a successful year for the Lee's Crossing community. Included among the community events and accomplishments were:

- The Social Committee hosted several events during the year including: the New Year's Eve party, Springfling, pool opening party, Labor Day picnic, Octoberfest, Christmas cookie and beer swap, and Mexican dinner and trivia party. An annual Nativity play was held with the children during the cookie swap. Many thanks to the Social Committee for all their planning and hard work to host these great events.
- A new mushroom water feature was installed to replace the toddler pool.
- New permanent flood lighting was installed at the pool for swim meets and other evening events.
- The neighborhood tennis courts played host to Men's and Women's ALTA and USTA tennis teams.
- Over 130 swimmers participated on the summer swim team that ended the season with a 4-1 record. More than 30 swimmers from the team participated in the Patti Wilder County Swim Meet, with two swimmers advancing to the state meet. Thanks to Swim Team Coordinator Laura Fenton, the coaches, and the parent volunteers for a successful swim team year.
- A portion of the pool deck had new topcoat applied.
- The clubhouse was rented or used for neighborhood events 70 times. Thanks to our retiring Clubhouse Manager Tricia Wilson for her hard work overseeing the scheduling and care of the clubhouse and pool areas.
- The neighborhood watch program was re-established with the Marietta Police Department. The new program, M-STAR, encourages and fosters communication between our community and the police department.
- The police department provided a home and holiday safety seminar at the clubhouse in November.
- The annual 'Dollar on your Door' campaign collected $1,500, which was distributed among the sanitation workers who serve our neighborhood. Thanks to Lisa Baker for coordinating the volunteers to collect the funds and distribute them among the workers.
- A Lee's Crossing Men's Group was started.
- The landscape contract was rebid this fall. Four proposals were received and the Board selected Gibbs Landscape Co. based on their cost and RFP response.

Thanks to the Leisure Ladies for your hard work decorating the clubhouse for the Holidays again this year!

Annual neighborhood assessments have been mailed and are due by February 1, 2016. The assessment also includes a ballot for the Directors and Treasurer whose terms are ending; please vote and return your ballot with your payment. If you have not received an assessment invoice, please contact Angela Ford at leescrossingmariettaga@gmail.com.
