President's Message

Many thanks to the Social Committee members for their planning and hard work to make the Oktoberfest afternoon such a huge success! The Social Committee members donate many hours of time and talent to provide activities and events throughout the year that help to bring neighbors together and strengthen our neighborhood ties. Thank You All!

Regretfully, Board Member and Secretary David Hettrich has had to resign his position due to work demands. We thank David for his dedication and commitment to the community during his tenure on the Board.

In our continuing effort to strengthen our neighborhood relationship and communications with the Marietta Police Department through the M-STAR (Marietta - Strategically Targeting Areas with Resources) program, members of the Marietta Police Community Response Unit will present a seminar on Home and Holiday Safety on Thursday, November 19 at 7:30PM at the Lee's Crossing Clubhouse. Please plan on attending to hear tips on how to have a safe holiday season.
